Helping Underprepared Students Succeed

“How to Influence Student Engagement, Learning, and Persistence”

Tuesday

November 29, 2011

1:00 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Union Dunleavy

This Innovative Educators webinar will identify the emotional, cognitive, and behavior barriers that hinder student learning, engagement, and success. In addition to the data about students who are underprepared for college, you will learn strategies for—

- ✓ Understanding the backgrounds, characteristics, challenges, and strengths of students who are academically, socially, or psychologically underprepared for college level work.
- ✓ Developing and utilizing appropriate and powerful interventions based on theory and best practices

November Health Tip of the Month

Health Benefits of a Good Night's Sleep

A typical night's sleep happens in 90-minute cycles of REM & Non REM-sleep (REM =25% , deep sleep & intense dreaming / Non REM=75% when the body recharges itself)

Sleep deprivation can cause irritability, cognitive impairment, impaired moral judgment and symptoms similar to ADHD.

Adequate sleep is as essential to health and peak performance as is exercise and good nutrition.

Sleeping tips:

- Get 7-9 hours of sleep
- Don't consume heavy meals at night
- Exercise regularly
- Avoid exposure to bright light before bedtime
- Establish a relaxing bedtime routine.

The biggest "sleep stealers"

Stress: Job/school related pressures or a relationship problem

Environment: Distracting sleep environment

Lifestyle: Drinking alcohol (.06 BAC or above) or caffeine in the evening. Following an irregular morning and nighttime schedule

Medications: Decongestants, steroids, and some meds for high blood pressure.

FRIENDSHIP, HARDSHIP, AND HOPE IN A BRAZILIAN FAVELA

Michael Kerlin

Associate Partner, McKinsey & Company

Thursday, November 17, 201112:30-2 p.m. • Dunleavy Room

Michael Kerlin has been working on urban and economic development in Brazil in various capacities over the past 15 years, starting with research in 1996 and 1997 on school-community relations in Rio de Janeiro's favelas. More recently, he has led a number of urban infrastructure and sustainability projects in Brazil with the private and non-governmental sectors. He stays with a local family when he visits Rio's favelas and brings the favelas to life as he walks among twisting alleyways, broken schools, open sewers, and machine gun-toting drug gangs. Kerlin is the author of the Brazil chapter of Charting Our Water Future and has written about Brazil's favelas for the Rio Times and the Philadelphia Inquirer. He also has written about Latin America for a range of other publications.

General News

To: La Salle University Community

From: Beth Harper Briglia, Alumni Association Vice-President
Chair of the Awards Committee

Date: November 11, 2011

Subject: Call for Nominations, Alumni Association Award 2012: John J. Finley, '24 Award

Each year during the Fall Homecoming celebration, the Alumni Association holds its annual awards dinner and honors several students with the Alpha Epsilon Honor Society Induction along with alumni and community leaders the John J. Finley, '24 Award and Signum Fidei Medal. In recognition of the 150th Anniversary celebration, The Alumni Association has been working closely with the University's 150th Anniversary Planning Committee to identify Signum Fidei Medal nominees.

On behalf of the Alumni Association Board of Directors, I invite your participation in sending recommendations for nominees for the prestigious 2012 Finley award.

The Finley Award is presented each year to alumni who have exhibited outstanding service to La Salle University or the Alumni Association. John J. Finley, '24 held the position of President, Vice President and at the time of his death in 1961, Treasurer of the Alumni Association. To his contemporaries he was known as "Mr. La Salle" for his dedication to the University. The Alumni Association strives to honor those who have made significant contributions of their expertise and time to advance the mission of the University. These awardees are known to be outstanding volunteers who have taken on leadership roles among fellow alumni volunteers. Past Finley winners have a long track record of service to academic departments, strategic initiatives, student development and of course, their fellow alumni. A complete list of prior award winners for the Finley Award appears on the next page.

The Awards Selection committee asks that you please submit the alum's name, class year, and reasons why the candidate meets the Finley Award criteria. Nominations are due by e-mail to Trey Ulrich (Ulrich@lasalle.edu) by Monday, November 28.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at briglia208@comcast.com or Trey Ulrich in the Office for Alumni Relations at ulrich@lasalle.edu or 215.951.1834.

Thank you, in advance, for your input and consideration of this important Alumni Association award.

Procedures for Submitting Items for Inclusion in the Campus News

All information for the General, Academic, Minutes, or Athletic sections— with or without graphics and photos—must be submitted electronically either:

- via e-mail to the campusnews@lasalle.edu. (The article title must be included in the subject line of the e-mail), or
- via CD sent to Campus News, Box 187.

Submissions can be sent with graphics and photos laid out with the text or sent with the text and graphics separately. Please submit flyers and circulars as attachments in Microsoft Word or Publisher files. Please submit photos as JPEG files.

NOTE: If you need to submit flyers as PDF files, please follow the guidelines used for publication in University Communications. (You can request an abbreviated list of these guidelines by writing to campusnews@lasalle.edu.)

Letterhead or logos with submissions must conform to the approved standards explained and illustrated in the Brand Book published and distributed by University Communications.

All photos and graphics (clip art, logos other than La Salle's) must have their owners' permission to be reproduced. If you submit them with your information, you are responsible for gaining this permission.

All employment listings must be submitted first to Human Resources for approval (for more information, contact Human Resources at 215.951.1013).

Deadlines for Submission

Because of the Thanksgiving holiday, Campus News will not be published on November 25. If you have any events you would like to advertise for the week of November 28 through December 2, please submit them for next week's issue

- General News, Meeting Minutes, Events, and Other News: Wednesday at 4 p.m.
- New Positions of Employment at La Salle University: Monday at 2 p.m.
